PTL launches charitable 'PTL Foundation'

PTL, the leading independent trustee and governance services provider, today announced the launch of 'PTL Foundation' to support the poor and the vulnerable. PTL Foundation has recently been approved as a Registered Charity by the Charity Commission.

David Archer, Director of PTL, commented: "Since our MBO in 2017 PTL has been working towards being able to launch a charitable arm to give back to society. As an organisation we strongly believe in Corporate Social Responsibility and we are keen to put this belief into action. The Foundation will receive 10% of PTL's profit, which will be paid out to other, carefully selected, charities"
